Come Party with the Party!

KGB

is...

- * an informal, co-ed social organization at Carnegie Mellon University
- * almost 99% fat free.
- * an eccentric bunch of nerds, geeks, visionaries, outcasts and ne'er-do-wells, who plan on being on the right side of the guns when the Revolution comes.
- * so much fun, your pants will explode!
- * by law, not more than 5 percent insect parts or animal hair.
- * those strange people who run on you in Wean or Doherty, fiercely brandishing strips of foam-rubber and demanding to know whether you're on the red team or the yellow team.
- * so bad, we kick our own asses twice a day.
- * NOT Kappa Gamma Beta. The KGB is not a fraternity. We're not rushin', we're Russian.
- * NOT that KGB. No relation. We can't help you with your research for Russian History class.
- * NOT to be taken too seriously.
- * NOT yet available in Oregon, due to obscure long-term repercussions of the Hawley-Smoot Tariff.
- * NOT your fucking khakis!
- * CERTAINLY NOT watching your every move. The rumors are groundless. Go about your business, citizen.
