Pravda? Letters to the Editor

Subject: pravda submission

Hi Ellen,

Here is my Pravda? submission.

Thanks,

Janny M

Dear Janny M,

The editorial board here at Pravda? would like to thank you for your insightful submission! It's not every day that the staff gets to read such delightful and eloquent correspondence. I think the merit of your work goes without saying, but nonetheless, the staff would like to here include some further writings between the editor and Janny M which may provide further context. We are Moved to Tears.

Subject: Dream Submission: Pravda?

Hello Dr. Allen Seeser,

I've been informed by our mutual acquaintances, Tim and Jose, that you are the person that I should submit ideas to. They both vouch that you are a very enthusiastic student and that they have both heard you often talking about him, Tim and Jose, with some other kid.

I was told to submit my good ideas and dreams to you, for them to be acted upon by the university and wooden concession stands be erected in CMU to fund my cause.

I believe that students need to become more social to better succeed in society. Thus, they must study the behaviors of MUXs, decoders, and encoders to be better convolved and integrated by the industry for their future careers. This will also help students get better and cleaner teeth as they will have actual social lives and worry less about their future and have more time to attend to their personal impulses.

Best Regards,
Scott W. Doherty

Dear Scott,

Be warned, Pravda? does not tolerate trolls or fools. This is the last submission we will publish from you, and we have published it so that our readers can understand the pain of being a Pravda? editor.
