WELCOME TO KILTIE BAND GBM

Submitted by: Benner Rogers

Hello everyone, welcome to Kiltie Band! We're a marching band club here at Carnegie Mellon University! Were you expecting to come to some other club? What's this KGB you're talking about? I'm not sure what this is. You're at a Kiltie Band GBM, obviously, where else would you be? Here's Kiltie Band's second vice president, Daniel Yin. He is part of no other organization. His heart is in Kiltie Band. All your hearts are in Kiltie Band.

Kiltie Band's Illegal Recruiting Tactics

Submitted by: A Mysterious Enemy

As we are all obviously familiar with USC Title 34 Subtitle B Chapter VI Part 668 Part R, I would like to share an experience I've had that illustrates how evil Kiltie Band is.

Kiltie Band members invite you to "sporting events" at which Carnegie Mellon loses, misrepresenting them as games that they "might win" (in violation of § 668.501 (a) (4) (iii)). I was invited to pep band where one of the teams won and the other lost, but that was a fluke because most of the games they invite you to they lose.

They then peer-pressured me into sitting with them, and then they credibly demonstrated their ability to bash my skull in with a sousaphone (in violation of § 668.501 (a) (5)).

After getting me to play one (1) note on the flute, they attempted to make a verbal contractual agreement on my behalf without power of attorney to sign me up to play flute and/or piccolo for pep band two days later (in violation of § 668.501 (a) (1)).

It is plainly obvious that Kiltie Band's recruitment tactics are very illegal and please call the police if you find my skull bashed in with a sousaphone.
