SOME SELECTED PHOTOS OF DANIEL YIN

Submitted by: Luke Erbsen

The editor of Pravda? has been rather busy in the last week, and has not particularly felt like writing, so we would like to rather entertain you with some selected photos of Daniel J Yin, the Second Vice President of KGB.

Pravda? would like to sincerely apologize to Daniel J Yin.

REAL STUFF FOR PRAVDA? STUFF

Submitted by: Alex Werth

Does the average reader know that 'pravda' can mean 'real' in the Czech language? One can say 'je to pravda?' ("yeh toe PRAHVdah?") to ask "is that right?", where 'pravda' is a mix between like 'honest', 'real', 'true' and 'right' and you're expressing some interest or skepticism in what was just expressed. Affirmative is "to je pravda," and it turns out, Czech grammar can be a lot like English if you want it to be.

HERE'S SOMETHING ELSE I SAW RECENTLY

I saw this the other day near my apartment. Isn't it funny?
