EXCLUSIVE: KGB PRESIDENT CAUGHT IN PILK SCANDAL

Submitted by our investigative reporter nettlin

In a shocking turn of events, the president of the enigmatic organization known as KGB has been thrust into the spotlight, accused of a heinous act that will leave you gasping for breath!

On a chilling night in April at the place known as Kremlin, the infamous dictator personally prepared the beverage named "pilk". What is pilk, you ask? It's a deadly poison rumored to be a favorite amongst international spies and underworld criminals. This concoction is so perilous that it had earned the ignominious distinction of being banned by the United Nations on April 20, 1969, for its extreme toxicity.

The victim, whose identity we cannot disclose for their safety, was reportedly coerced into drinking this lethal concoction in a shocking act of intimidation. His life is no longer in a life-threatening condition, as we just learned of his sudden death. The public is demanding answers, and they won't rest until they get them. DOWN WITH THE TYRANT!!!

This sensational story wouldn't have seen the light of day without the courageous actions of the reporters of Pravda?. Our brave reporters stand as the last bastions of independent journalism, and must be protected against the nefarious actions of those who seek to conceal the truth. This is why you, dear reader, should consider submitting to Pravda so that ~~no news coming for~~
